NOTARIAL STATEMENT OF APPLICANT

Pursuant to Rule 49.6 (b -e)

IN THE MATTER of Colombian Patent
Application No. _____ in the name of Ralco Nutrition, Inc.

I, Benjamin C. Armitage, of Billion & Armitage, 7401 Metro Blvd., Suite 425, Minneapolis MN 55439, United States of America, of, make the following declaration:

1. I am a Shareholder of the firm Billion & Armitage (my firm) and am the attorney responsible for the handling of international patent application no. PCT/US2016/033271 (the international application).
2. The international application claims a priority date of 19 May 2015, making the 30 month deadline for national phase entry in various jurisdictions 19 November 2017, and the 31 months deadline for national phase entry in other jurisdictions 19 December 2017.
3. On 17 November 2017 my firm received email instructions to proceed with nationalization in a number of '30 month' countries. In that email our client, Ralco Nutrition, Inc., advised "We will schedule another call with Ben after Thanksgiving to discuss the 31 month countries". I forwarded this email to my paralegal, Wendy Skelly, on 18 November 2017.
4. The intention was that we would get the 30 month countries done immediately and talk to the client before the 31 month date to discuss the '31 month' countries. My paralegal inadvertently overlooked the need to discuss further national entries after Thanksgiving and assumed that our client had completed all filings they wanted to do and cleared the 31 month date from my firm's docketing system. Therefore, I was not notified of the date, nor was the client.

5. A few weeks later I was contacted by our client and we realized what had happened. I contacted our Colombian associate, HERRERO & ASOCIADOS, to determine whether late nationalization would be possible and, on receipt of advice from HERRERO & ASOCIADOS, late entry is being requested in light of the inadvertent nature of the circumstances outlined in this Notarial Statement.

6. Failure to enter the national phase in Columbia prior to 19 December 2017 was due to an error in maintaining a diary entry in respect of the 31 month deadline following entry into the national phase in various 30 month countries.

7. Had the 31 month deadline been maintained in my firm's diary, the Colombian national entry would have been discussed with our client and actioned prior to 19 December 2017.

I believe that the statements in this declaration are true in every particular.
