The ATCC® understands that:

1. The deposit of this strain does not grant ATCC® a license, either express or implied, to infringe the patent, and our release of this strain to others does not grant them a license, either express or implied, to infringe the patent.
2. If the deposit should become non-viable or be destroyed during the effective term of the patent, it shall be your responsibility to replace it with viable material. It is also your responsibility to supply a sufficient quantity for distribution for the deposit term. ATCC® will distribute and maintain the material for 30 years or 5 years following the most recent request for the deposit, whichever is longer. The U.S. and many other countries are signatory to the Budapest Treaty.

Prior to the issuance of a relevant patent, ATCC® agrees in consideration for a one-time service charge, not to distribute this strain or any information relating thereto or to their deposit except as instructed by the depositor or relevant patent office. After a relevant patent issues, we are responsible to release this strain and they will be made available for distribution to the public without any restrictions. We will inform you of requests for this strain for 30 years from date of deposit.

The deposit was tested 03Jun2019 and on that date, the strain was viable.
