

Dermetric

A line graph with seven data points connected by lines, positioned below the word 'Dermetric'. The graph shows a fluctuating trend, starting with a low point, rising to a peak, falling to a low point, rising to a peak, falling to a low point, and ending with a slight rise. The data points are represented by small green circles, and the lines are thin and light green.