(54) Title: METHOD OF FORMING A CONTAINER WITH SHRINK LABEL

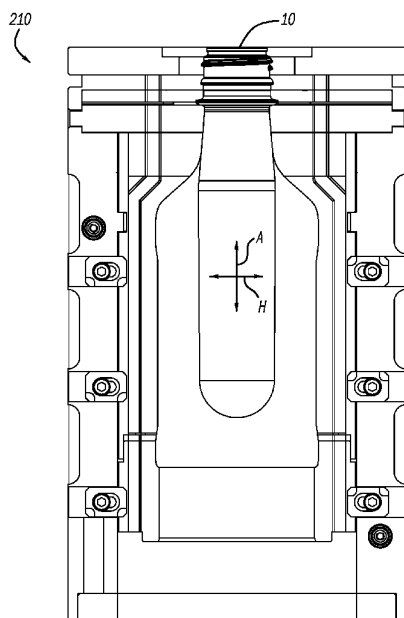

FIG. 2

(57) Abstract: A method of applying a label to a container. The container is a clear annealed polymeric container. The method includes the following: forming the container from a preform; applying a label to the container by heat-shrinking the label onto the container; after applying the label, filling the container with a product at a temperature less than 150°F; and capping the container.
